—When completed the house that Fritz Brinkopf is building will be the handsomest building on Spragg Street.

—Mr. A. Haenel, representing the big establishment of Kingman & Company, dealers in farm machinery, carriages, wagons and in fact everything that is in the market for farceurs, saw mill men and mechanists, was in the city to-day. He will go from here to Silesien where he expects to sell a car load of binder twine to one firm.

Children like to take "C. C. C. Certain Chill Cure," the pleasant and guaranteed care for Fever, Ague and Malaria. Price 50 cents.

For sale by W. H. Coerver, druggist.

—Otto Kahlkopf, the man who has been operating the Cape Foundry for the last year or two, has shipped out and left quite a large number of creditors to mourn his disappearance. He is now home from all his friends, and that money he owes yet. We understand that he caught a farmer for two hundred and fifty dollars, and we know several men in the city who are out on him considerably more.

—Matt Morrison says when he gets his new business house re-built on Spanish street, he proposes to open a pawnbroker's office in connection with his lumber and feed store.

—Under the old ordinances of the city the lowest fine for misdemeanors was five dollars and costs. Now under the State law the Recorder can fix the fine at from one dollar up to one thousand dollars. This is one instance where the new law is better than the old. It will save the city the expense of boarding prisoners several days while they are working out their fine.

—A team owned by a Mr. Wingerter became frightened this morning on Spanish street, at a steam engine just ran away. Nothing seriously happened and nothing broke except coupling-poles. The team ran against Dr. Brown's wagon and upset it. Parties operating traction engines could look up the law in regard to this matter and also the law in regard to bridges.

—The river is rising again and the people in the river bottoms are getting the "blues," but it has to rise to the feet to reach the red hot bluster mark." This is the June rise.

—With Warren cut the end of his right fore finger off yesterday, Dr. Ward dressed the wound.

—Your appetite is gone nothing will restore it more quickly than "C. C. C. Certain Chill Cure," the great Tonic and guaranteed Care for Chills and Fever. Price 50 cents.

For sale by W. H. Coerver, druggist.

—Mr. Lawrence Shamer, a graduate of the Normal school, left this morning and elected Alice Carroll one of the teachers in the parochial school instead of Maggie Carroll who was voted for and elected at the regular meeting. Monday night, Mrs. Maggie Carroll has been employed as first assistant of the Jackson public school.

—Mrs. Rosland Moore has gone out a visit to Mrs. Martin at Peoria, Ill.

—Keep cool by moving your summer Clothing and Dress Goods at Gosselin.

—The river is still rising, but there is little danger of an overflow. The upper rivers are reported to be falling and the river news from St. Louis is very favorable for a falling river within the next few days.

—We please the eye protect the pocket and improve the memory with our leggings. Haman's shoe store.

—The colored Masons are endeavoring to bid to build their Masonic hall on Spragg street the foundation of which is already complete.

—Otto Hebe has moved his blacksmith shop to Egypt Mills.

—People who have tried Haman's bargains cry for more, like Oliver Twist.

—Alexander Winstead, lawyer, was found dead in the aisle of the house occupied by John Sander, cousin to the deceased. He was a stranger in this city without friends or money. The Coroner held an inquest this afternoon and the jury's verdict was that the deceased came to his death by heart failure.

—Talk about the devil and you'll see his tail! But why talk of him when you can talk of Haman's bargains.

—THURSDAY.

—The editor of the Jackson Citizen-News is down on Current River fishing and the sloop-keepers of Jackson have a rest for one week.

—The river is falling slowly, only one-tenth of a foot last night.

—Young married people and old married people, cannot go amiss in fitting up their homes with furniture if they buy at our store.

—A. WALTHEIMER.

—The case of Adam Frank against the Grand Tower & Carbonate Railroad Company is occupying the attention of the Common Pleas Court to-day. This case was tried at the last term of the court but the jury that tried it failed to agree.

—See the large line of summer Clothing and Dress Goods at Gosselin's and the extra low prices.

—G. A. C. Neathery has opened up another meat market in the old Collier's stand on Broadway, where he will keep constantly on hand a supply of fresh meat. He respectfully solicits the patronage of the good people on the hill.

—Go to Gosselin's for your straw-berrries.

—The funeral of Henry Schaefer took place at Appleton this afternoon, and a large number of his Jackson friends went up to Appleton to follow the remains to the grave.

—See the big line of Ladies' low-cut shoes for summer wear at Gosselin's.

—Regenthaler is making a paved pavement in front of Dr. S. F. Smith's property on Thiemis street, where this work is done Thiemis street will have the longest stretch of paved pavement in the city.

—Marshal Griech arrested a boy this morning on a telegram from the sheriff of Dunklin county. The boy is about fourteen years of age. The telegram did not state for what he was wanted.

—If some of our merchants are compelled of dull times others say they are having a better trade than most of this season of the year. The question is that is having the good luck or the merchant whose invention may be found in the Democrat.

—They're rattlers. Not snakes, but garters in shoes at Haman's.

—The millions of flies, buffalo gnats and mosquitoes, bote no good. They are tormentors of a sickly season.

We have them this year and we can not be too careful of ourselves.

—It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform the cure, and are the best. I Ben Miller, Druggist.

—Walther is giving bargains in sideboards.

—Maj. Dennis is preparing to rebuild on the site of his residence lately destroyed by fire on the corner of Spanish and Merriweather streets. Henry Koell has the contract for the brick work.

—There is a salve for every wound.

—We refer to Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, which burns, bleaches, bruises, abrasions, etc., in the nostrils. It cures, cures, and always cures piles. I Ben Miller, Druggist.
